

Serving you for 140 years

Come celebrate with us!

What do a traveling druggist, a railroad bridge builder, a prominent Civil War veteran and a Lisbon banker have in common?

They all have important connections to Mount Vernon Bank & Trust Company.

Their stories – and the stories of many others – will be the focus of a history presentation at the bank 10 a.m. Friday, January 19th. The free program is one of a handful of activities for our 140th anniversary. We’re honored and proud to have been serving the Mount Vernon-Lisbon-Cornell community since 1884!

Visit the bank on Friday, January 19th, for these events:

Presentation: Join us at 10 a.m. for about a half-hour presentation titled “The interesting characters of Mount Vernon Bank & Trust.” You’ll learn the stories of all kinds of people connected to the bank – from a druggist.

Giveaway: We have quality “serving you since 1884” ice cream scoops. Stop in the bank on January 19th to get this gift.

ICE CREAM!! We’ll have soft-serve ice cream in the lobby.

History display: Check out a timeline of the bank’s history, along with some unique artifacts.
